14. Board Comments

Supervisor Parker announced the two recipients of the Instigator of Excellence Scholarship for 2013 for District 4 residents. The award is designed for people that have shown academic excellence, leadership and giving back to their community. The recipients are Queyen Nguyen of Marina, who moved to the United States at age 12 or 13 and will be attending U.C. San Diego. She tutored at schools in Marina to assist others in perfecting their English skills. She was presented with a proclamation at the Marina City Council meeting and received $250. Janeesha Williams of Seaside will continue her education at Monterey Peninsula College and ultimately wants to be a nurse. Janeesha realized later in her high school career that she wanted to do higher quality work. She caught up in school and shown herself to be a responsible young member of the community and writes beautiful poetry. She received a proclamation and will also receive $250. Supervisor Parker congratulated both recipients.

Supervisor Calcagno advised of the structural fire at the Franco Hotel in Castroville that left 38 people homeless. His staff spent considerable time working to coordinate support services for the displaced residents. He requested that the County have someone in charge of these type of concern in a specific department. This type event will occur again and the County should be prepared to respond. We don't have the structure currently to handle these type of situations. Nick Chiulos responded that County staff is working to create a more coordinated structure for response to emergency situations such as this.

Supervisor Armenta announced that Supervisor Salinas attended the annual Veteran's appreciation event last Thursday at the One-Stop Center. Supervisor Armenta advised he attended the COPA community event on ViaCare at St.Marys. He thanked Harry Weis and Ray Bullick and others supporting community outreach efforts.

15. CAO Comments and Referrals

Assistant County Administrative Officer Nick Chiulos advised County staff has been briefed on the fire incident and will work on a more coordinated response structure. Mr. Chiulos also advised of the following Board Referral from Supervisor Parker:
Status Report on ViaCare and increase ViaCare eligibility to match MediCal FPL; referred to Harry Weis at Natividad Medical Center.
